

ELECTION ADDRESS

George and Benson Law Without Final Party Until Conference Are Normal.
Thursday, Nov. 21.—David George and Andrew Benson Law issued a long election address to the country. For the most part it was a statement of the issues made by the two political leaders outlining plans for preference to certain issues. It says, however, that the country has returned to normal industrial conditions it would be a mistake to prescribe a fiscal policy intended for permanence.
"We must endeavor," the address states, "to reduce the war debt in such a manner as to inflict the least injury to industry and credit. The necessities of the country necessarily be dependent upon the needs of the empire, its prosperity and requirements and the necessities of the league for the preservation of peace."
It will be the duty of the new administration to remove all existing barriers of law as between men and women and create a second union based upon direct contact with the people. There can be no peace in the kingdom or while the Irish question remains unsettled. Therefore, all practical paths toward a settlement must be explored. There are two paths, however, which are closed, namely, leading to the complete severance of Ireland from the empire, and the other to forcible subjection of the six Ulster counties to a home parliament against their will."

REGISTRAR FOR U. D. C.

California Woman Chosen to Fill Vacancy.
Washington, D. C., Nov. 21.—One of the leading events at the session of the executive board of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, now meeting in the election of Mrs. Mary L.
Robert of Berkeley, Cal., as registrar general to fill the vacancy in this office. The final business meeting of the board was held at 10 o'clock and was followed by a large reception at which the Charleston chapter, U. D. C., was the hostess.

AVIATORS ESCAPE

Another Thrilling Chapter to Experience of Three American Officers.
Boston, Nov. 22.—Capt. Norman Hall of Colfax, Ia., well known in the literary world as author of "The Mob," Lieut. Charles Russell Codman, member of a prominent Boston family, and Lieut.
Robert Browning and Henry Lewis, all of the United States aviation service, escaped from a German prison camp just before the armistice was signed.
A long distance telephone message from Washington to Codman's parents told of the escape, adding another chapter to the thrilling experiences these young men have had during which their bravery and indomitable courage have attracted wide attention.

CHARGED WITH POISONING

Man Russell, of Rome, Held on Alleged Father-in-law's Family Paris Green.
Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 21.—Chester Russell, of Rome, Ga., is held here on a charge of poisoning his wife's family at Atlanta, near Rome. Jasper Russell, the wife's father, died from poisoning this morning, and other members of the family are in a critical condition. Russell had been separated from his wife and recently returned, trying to persuade her to live with him. His father-in-law charged Russell placed Paris green in a coffee pot used by the Russell family.

INCREASE WAGES

Washington Street Car Men Get an Advance of 50 to 60 Cents.
Washington, Nov. 21.—Increases in wages for employees of the Washington Metropolitan Railway and Electric company, Washington, D. C., are provided in an award returned today by the war labor board. The new wage scale raises from 35 to 40 cents an hour the maximum to be paid after nine months' service. The board recommended that the company be allowed to raise its rates to enable it to meet the increased operating expense. The award is effective Nov. 15 for the duration of the war.

EMPTY VICTORY

Whitman Expected New York to Ratify Federal Prohibition Amendment.
Columbus, O., Nov. 22.—Gov. Charles F. Whitman, of New York, speaking before the world prohibition conference last night, said his defeat by the major interests of New York was an empty victory for the wets, inasmuch as the latter failed to elect a legislature favorable to their cause.
"The next New York legislature is Republican," said Gov. Whitman, "and the majority of the republicans favor the ratification of the federal dry amendment. It is possible that the legislature will ratify the dry amendment at its next session."

PROBLEMS OF REBUILDING

Lumbermen to Consider Matter of Reconstruction of France.
Chicago, Nov. 22.—Problems connected with supplying materials with which to rebuild the devastated parts of France and Belgium are to be taken up at a convention of lumbermen from all parts of the United States which opened here today.
The convention was called by the National Lumber Manufacturers' association because the signing of the armistice and the stopping of work on construction and other war department construction which took the entire output of the mills. Lumber which would have gone into war work in this country may now be used for reconstruction purposes in Europe.

FLORIDIANS MUSTERED OUT.
Panama, Fla., Nov. 21.—Sixty-six officers and 1,800 artillerymen from a Virginia camp will be the first Florida soldiers to be transferred to a point near home for mustering out.
They will arrive at Fort Barrancas shortly. Some of these men received preliminary training at Camp Blanding all from Florida or adjoining southern states.

TRANSATLANTIC FLIGHTS

French Factory Building Four-Motor Aircraft for Long Flights.
Paris, Nov. 21.—The Bleriot-Farman airplane factory has begun building four-motor aircraft for flights across the Atlantic. It was stated today.

DARN THE KAISER!

Cleveland, O., (L. R.).—Another reason to be sore at the Kaiser: Restaurant owners here say that there is a decided shortage of expert oyster openers and that the man who gets 'em on the half shell is lucky. There has never been an overplus of real shell-opening experts in Cleveland, and now that many of the men are being sent to other kinds of shells to the Kaiser and the dollar price, the smaller eating places are up against it for the crisis of winter days.

CROZIER MAY GO

News That He Will Be Named as One of Peace Envoys.
Boston, Mass., Nov. 21.—It was reported at army headquarters here today that Maj. Gen. William Crozier, commanding the department of the northwest, is to go to France as one of the army delegates to the peace conference at Versailles. Gen. Crozier refused the news and declined to be interviewed.

WAR HAVOC IN PERSIA

BRINGS CANNIBALISM

Human Beings Eat Each Other in Starving Land of Omar Khayyam—American Women Missionary Brings News of Incredible Hardships.

Seattle, Wash.—(Staff Special, N. A.)—Human beings are eating each other in war-wasted Persia. Teheran, world-famed capital of the land of Omar Khayyam, the poet Saadi and the harem, once the mecca of globe-trotting beauty seekers, is now caught hard and fast in a mesh of war horror.

Typhus, famine and plague have blasted its charm. The surge of Turkish and Russian armies in that country devastated the fields and put an end to food production. Now the plight of the people is so desperate that in some places cannibalism has been committed.

Word of the terror in Persia was brought to America by Mrs. Eva Hallis Douglas, an American woman.
She has spent sixteen years in that country in missionary work under the direction of the Presbyterian board of foreign missions, and she left only after her husband had succumbed to typhus.

As a part of her work Mrs. Douglas was in charge of the distribution of funds sent over by the American-Syrian relief commission. For some time she and Mr. Douglas and their maid conducted near their dwelling a hospital for orphan children suffering from typhus fever. Last February the three workers were stricken. The husband died and Mrs.
Douglas was herself near death for several weeks.

"With only $30,000 for all Persia," said Mrs. Douglas, "you can imagine that I could give many families only a limited amount, while others received none and died in the streets."
"During last winter hundreds of persons came to our home on the hospital grounds, asking for 'a bite, a bite!' The suffering was so great that instances of cannibalism were reported by the authorities. And ordinarily the Persians are a most humane people."

from the car. In the excitement of the rescue the pseudo Red Cross worker was found talking excellent and rapid English to a British army officer.

Through an intercepted telegram it was learned that she was a go-between for spies in Hamadan and Tiflis, Russia. With the other two suspects, she was sent to the interior of India and interned.

As the party approached the Mesopotamian lines a mounted guard of Britishers met them to guide them through a dangerous strip of territory in which a sharp battle had been fought a few days previous.
Mesopotamia, Mrs. Douglas said, is a wonderland of British ingenuity.
"Country that formerly was practically a desert has been transformed into a succession of bustling little towns," she said. "Railroads and other modern conveniences made possible by engineering feats make it hard to believe that one is in Mesopotamia."

"The Tommies everywhere brought out their choicest dainties—tea and long-treasured biscuits, while they insisted upon serving to us in spite of our protests."
